Holy trinity £18m

With a Four Seasons hotel, a Turkish-inspired spa called the Temple of the Senses, a boardroom and a private members' club, Ten Trinity Square aims to be the power player's residence of choice. The 41 homes in the grade II* listed 1920s former Port of London Authority building, in London EC3, start at £5m; this three-bedroom show flat, with interiors by Martin Kemp Design, will set you back a cool £18m.
